

Issues that involve safety or mistreatment of the inmate should be reported to Chief Tammy Morris. Here phone number is 630-5801. Just remember that no one can expect any "special treatment" in jail, and it is not a suitable place for a person who has a severe and persistent mental health issue.

COURTS AND JAIL INFORMATION

Baker Act Clerk of the Court (Duval County Courthouse, Room 101	630-2058
Issues involving safety or mistreatment of inmates (Chief Tammy Morris)	630-5801
Director of Duval County Jails and Corrections (Mike Bruno)	630-5847
Head of Mental Health Services (Chief George Pratt)	630-2625
Duval County Jail Mental Health Coordinator (Darlene Little)	630-5826
Duval County Jail Mental Health Physician (part time) (Dr. Saira Saqib)	630-7400
Duval County Jail Mental Health Nurses Station	630-7400
Duval County Jail Mental Health Counselors	630-7400
Duval County Jail Diversion from First Appearance of Individuals with Mental Illness (Kimberly Brown)	630-5892

Inmate Information

630-5747

Or to find whether a person is in jail, visit

<http://inmatesearch.jaxsheriff.org/>

Updated June 9, 2017